

Liz Siminsky appointed General Manager Specialty Care, Sanofi Australia & New Zealand

Sydney, Australia, 14 March 2022. Liz Siminsky has been appointed as the new General Manager for Sanofi Australia & New Zealand's Specialty Care business. She replaces Fiona Clark who has accepted a new role as Head of Global Launch and Marketing Excellence in Japan, Pacific and Asia for Sanofi Specialty Care.

Sanofi's Specialty Care team works across a wide range of therapeutic areas including Immunology, Rare Diseases, Rare Blood Disorders, Oncology, and Multiple Sclerosis. As General Manager, Liz will lead and work with a team of 70 dedicated professionals.

In her new role, Liz will join Sanofi Australia and New Zealand's six member Country Council, led by Karen Hood. She will also join Sanofi Specialty Care's Japan Pacific Leadership Team. She will report directly to Sandeep Sahney, Head of Japan & Pacific for Sanofi Specialty Care.

Sandeep Sahney

Head of Japan & Pacific for Sanofi Specialty Care

Regarding Liz Siminsky

"Liz has a distinguished career having worked across a number of major pharmacos before joining Sanofi in 2013. Over the past nine years she has spearheaded a number of highly successful brand launches across Immunology and Multiple Sclerosis in particular. She has consistently demonstrated her ability to stretch and focus on patients while building winning teams."

"The success of Liz's leadership style was on show in 2021 when her team took out three Prime Awards including Best launch, Best launch campaign and Best use of data and insights. I'm looking forward to continuing to work with Liz and seeing her succeed as the General Manager of our Australia & New Zealand Specialty Care business."

Regarding Fiona Clark

"Fiona's promotion to Head of Global Launch and Marketing Excellence Japan, Pacific & Asia for Specialty Care is incredibly well deserved. Over her 12 years with Sanofi, she has proven her leadership capability, building high performing teams and first class launches across a range of therapeutic areas."

"As General Manager for Sanofi Specialty Care Australia & New Zealand she has ably led the teams across Rare Diseases, Multiple Sclerosis and Immunology while also successfully integrating our Rare Blood Disorder portfolio. Along with launch leadership, Fiona has played an instrumental role on the Australia & New Zealand Country Council championing a number of country programs to drive simplification & diversity and inclusion. As a champion for women in leadership, I know she will continue to prove her leadership breadth and depth in her new role, and I congratulate her on this exciting new opportunity."

Liz Siminsky

"Having been fortunate to work within our Speciality Care team for several years now, I can only share my excitement at this new opportunity to lead such an amazing group of talented, passionate and dedicated individuals."

"I know that everyone in our Speciality Care business, and beyond at Sanofi, is driven by our purpose: we chase the miracles of science to improve peoples' lives. Leading our team members in a way that frees them to live our purpose and make every moment matter for our patients in Australia and New Zealand, is the challenge I will personally strive to reach each day."

Fiona Clark

Leading our Speciality Care team in Australia & New Zealand has been the highlight of my career so far. I know the passion that drives our local team to never settle and I'm looking forward to continuing to celebrate their ongoing success, under Liz's leadership.

Having been a member of our Japan Pacific Leadership Team for several years I know that same passion exists across the region. I'm excited by the opportunity to continue striving for our customers and patients in this new role and look forward to working with teams across Japan, Pacific & Asia.

Liz and Fiona will officially step into their new roles from 1 April 2022.
